IV. Comprehensive Insurance for Foreign Students

International students studying in China over six months are required to buy INSURANCE (<Comprehensive Insurance for Foreign Students>). Please pay for the insurance at the beginning of the semester.

There are two plans provided by insurance company. The fees are as follows:

Plan1 Insurance for 6 months costs 300RMB, while insurance for 6 months to a year costs 600RMB

Plan2 Insurance for 6 months costs 400RMB, while insurance for 6 months to a year costs 800RMB

For more information regarding the insurance package, please check the 2nd item in the Insurance Liability and Claims Guide (《保险责任与理赔指南》) This guide is available on www.lxbx.net in multiple languages.

Tips:

- 1) When visiting the hospital, remember to bring along your passport and insurance card.
- 2) Always keep your medical records, detailed expenditure receipts and examination and laboratory reports as they will come in handy when filing for claims.
- 3) If you have any other queries, please call 4008105119#1. They provide health consultation services, medical guidance and will be able to explain more about insurance claims.

- ◆ It's not compulsory for the students studying in China less than 6 months to buy insurance. But we suggest that you should buy insurance for your own safety.

V. Administrative Regulation

I. Semesters Arrangement

The school year is divided into two semesters; Spring and Fall semesters.

A semester usually lasts 20 weeks, of which the last 2 weeks are set aside for revision towards examinations. The school year starts in September, which is also the start of the fall semester while the spring semester usually starts in February.

If you want to have a detailed and concrete outline of the arrangement of the semester, please consult yearly academic calendar.

There will be a winter and summer vacation every year. The summer vacation lasts 2 months, normally from the beginning of July to the end of August. The winter vacation lasts 4 to 6 weeks, normally from the beginning of January to the end of February (according to Lunar calendar).

II. Class Attendance

1. Attendance is generally checked for all lectures, examinations and other academic activities.
2. Students should study conscientiously and be punctual in attending class. Truancy, lateness, and leaving class early are not permitted. 5 minutes late for the class or leaving the class before it is over will be regarded as absence.
3. Students should request for sick leave or personal leave, he/she must apply for excused absence in advance. The subject teacher may approve leave for one day only. The student should hand in an application to mentor or IECC for leaving more than one day. The leave is only validated when approval is obtained. Unexcused absences are considered as acts of truancy.
4. While asking for leave, students should inform the mentor about their destination and duration for safety and protection while they are away.

5. Students who play truant with number of classes within a semester will receive corresponding punishment:

- ◆ those with number of classes up to 3: Oral warning
- ◆ those with number of classes up to 6: Written warning
- ◆ those with number of classes up to 9: Record a demerit
- ◆ those with number of classes up to 12: Observation at school
- ◆ those with number of classes up to 15: Exclusion
- ◆ those who leave school by himself will be responsible for their own action and will be dealt with truancy by school as 6 classes a day and will be punished according to the above-mentioned provisions.

III. Examinations

1. International students must attend all classes defined by the teaching plan and pass all the examinations.
2. The examinations are graded with 100 point system of which the passing score is 60%, i.e. 60 points out of 100 points. The final score is composed of the final examination (60%), internal assessment (30%) and performance during semester including class attendance (10%).
3. For each subject, minimum class attendance requirement for participating in the final examination is 80 % of the total academic hours, including theory and practical.
4. Whoever fails to participate in the final examination without permission from the school will be regarded as absent and will be awarded '0' marks. Furthermore, they will not be allowed to take the make-up examination and will have to study the course again after repaying for the study.
5. Teachers will evaluate and mark the exam papers respectively and grade students. Marked papers will not be given back to the students. Written application may be submitted to the school for re-checking the marks in case of dissidence in the score within the first week of the next semester.

6. Those who fail in final semester examinations are allowed to sit for make-up test, but the final result in the mark-sheet will be marked as “Make-up Examination”. Failure in the make-up test will result in restudying the course whose fee should be borne by the student.

7. The score of make-up exams will be recorded as follows: If the score is 60 or more, it will be recorded as 60. If less than 60, it will be recorded as the exact mark. The make-up record will also be kept in the personal file.

8. If inevitable circumstances, during examination period, refrains a student from participating in the examination, the student should write an application for postponing the exam. If permission is granted, he/she will be allowed to take part in the make-up test and the record will not be marked as “Make-up Examination”. However, he/she will not be given a make-up examination if he/she fails. He/she will have to restudy the subject as those who fail in the make-up examination.

9. International Students must finish assignments conscientiously, independently and in time. Those who fail to submit two fifths of the assignments or who are absent from class (theory and practical) for more than 20% of the total classes in a subject without good reasons will be barred from taking the final semester examination. The mark in that particular subject (theory or practical) will be recorded as “0” and no “Make-up examination” will be allowed. They will have to restudy the subject together with those who fail in the make-up examination after paying the restudy fee.

10. The student must observe the rules of the examination room and must not promote cheating during examination. Once cheating is found, he/she will be asked to leave the exam hall and the paper will be marked “0”. “Cheating in Examination” will be marked out in the Student Academic Record and there will be no Make-up examination. He/she will have to restudy the subject as those who fail in the make-up examination. The alleged student will be punished according to the seriousness of the cheating and/or promoting cheating.

11. Examination Rules

- ◆ Students should arrive at the examination room 15 minutes before the examination. Having been admitted to the examination room, students are not allowed to leave without permission from the invigilator. No students are permitted to enter the examination room 15 minutes after the examination has started. Students are not permitted to leave the examination room during the first 30 minutes of each examination.
- ◆ Students must leave all the study materials and bags in the front of the examination room.
- ◆ Students must keep absolute silence in the examination room.
- ◆ During the examination, students must keep their mobile phones and other electronic devices OFF and put them in the assigned place.
- ◆ Students must write their roll number and names on the examination paper first.
- ◆ Students must not cheat or assist cheating: they must not communicate by word of mouth or other body languages with other students. They must not borrow any stationery (e.g. pens, rulers, erasers, calculators, etc.) from others during the examination. They must not peep at other students' papers or change papers with others. They must not bring in test-related papers to the test room. If the above-mentioned behavior(s) is/are found, his/her result will be marked as "zero" and a written warning will be given.
- ◆ Students must use black or dark blue ball-point pens for writing answers. Examination papers completed by pencils or red pens will be null (examination questions which require drawing pictures excluded).
- ◆ Students must not raise any questions to the invigilators during the examination.
- ◆ Students must observe the prevailing non-smoking rule in the examination room. Food and drink are not allowed.

- ◆ Students must remain seated at the end of the examination. Students must not communicate with other students while all completed examination papers are being collected by the invigilators.
- ◆ Students must not talk or discuss outside the examination room after submitting their papers in advance, because this may disturb other students who are still sitting for the examination.

IV. Suspension and Resumption of Studies

- ◆ International students who ask for leave for 3 weeks or more due to personal affairs or serious illness will be asked to suspend their studies.
- ◆ If a student gets three written warnings in his/her academic years, he/she should be suspended as a regulatory punishment.
- ◆ The status of 'student' will be retained for one, at most, two years during suspension. When suspension is due, the student should ask for resumption of studies two weeks before the start of a new academic year.
- ◆ Total suspension time for a student should not exceed two years.
- ◆ Once suspension decision is made, the student should leave HNCST within 10 days.
- ◆ During suspension, the student should take sole responsibility of his/her expenses and safety.
- ◆ Those who fail to resume study at scheduled time will be regarded as "drop-out".
- ◆ Those who did anything against the law or regulations will be refused to resume study in HNCST.

V. Transfer

1. Transfer will be allowed before the start of a new semester. The student can start the procedure from the mid-term of each semester.
2. Transfer Procedures:
 - ◆ The student who wants to transfer writes an application to IECC.

- ◆ The transfer application should be confirmed by the applicant's parents by mail or fax.
- ◆ The receiving college or university should provide a proof giving their agreement to the transfer.
- ◆ After completion of the above procedures, a Transfer Permit will be given to the applicant.
- ◆ Once the Transfer Permit is given, the applicant's Residence Permit in Hainan will be terminated. The applicant must apply for new Residence Permit in the city where he/she studies.

VI. Award, Counseling and Punishment

1. Award

- ◆ Students observing school regulations and laws and excellent in studies deserve honor with the title of 'Excellent Student'. The college will give such students Certificate of Merit at the end of each academic year.
